

Live Webcast

Friday, December 1, 2023

12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.

1.5 CLE hours

Supreme Court of Illinois Judicial College

Guardian ad Litem Education Committee

Committee on Judicial Education

Presents:

Interviewing Children and Youth – Part 2

Target Audience:

- Family Court Judges
- Child Representatives
- Guardians ad Litem

To Register:

<https://www.pathlms.com/aoic/courses/60181/webinars/39433>

If you are registering for the first time, “Sign-Up” and create an account. Next, click on Events to locate this live webcast.

If you are a returning user, click Link above and “Sign-In, search “Featured Events” to locate this live webcast.

“Session one (1) of this 2-part series is available On-Demand via PATH”

Technical questions?

(888) 705-6002 or
support@blueskyelearn.com

Non-Technical questions?

judicialcollege@illinoiscourts.gov

Google Chrome browser preferred

This course builds upon the foundation of child development presented in Interviewing Children and Youth: Part One by taking a closer look at interviewer skills and strategies to effectively work with children and youth in the courts. These skills recognize the special needs of children involved with the courts, including the need to be trauma-informed and culturally sensitive, and respectful of unique communication needs based on age and physical and/or developmental abilities.