1:30pm – 3:00pm

THERAPY DOGS PROVIDE:

EMOTIONAL COMFORT: Children and vulnerable individuals often feel more secure when interacting with a calm friendly dog.

IMPROVED COMMUNICATION: A therapy dog's presence can help clients, especially youth, open up more easily during interviews and hearings

STRESS REDUCTION: For individuals struggling with substance abuse or trauma, the presence of a therapy dog can lower blood pressure and help them feel supported.

CALMING PRESENCE: Even court staff and legal professionals find their days improved by a few minutes with a therapy dog.
